Sunday 7th December 2008

Orienteering in Worcestershire,
Herefordshire, South
Shropshire, the Black
Country and Birmingham.

Venue & Travel 5k NW of Bewdley, along the B4194. Car parking at Pound Green, at Landranger Sheet 138 SO755784, signed from Bewdley town centre, for those approaching from South and East, and from junction of B4363 and B4194, for those approaching from North and West. Extra caution required when approaching T-junction of minor road with B4194 at Buttonoak.

Parking: Flat dry field, but alternative may be used if very wet. Charge for parking = £1.00 per car, with proceeds to the landowner. Please share cars where possible. Drivers of coaches, minibus or RVs, please contact the organiser in advance. Registration and Assembly in the car park, with 1k walk to the start. Dogs on lead in car park and assembly field.

Terrain: Mixed undulating woodland on the north edge of the Wyre Forest with a well developed track network. The recent addition of the 700m x 700m enclosed area in the southern part of the map gives more route choices and challenges. Despite the usual bracken, undergrowth and brashings in some parts, there are significant runnable areas to make this an enjoyable orienteering location

Map: 1:10,000 Updated 2008

Courses: Badge courses + colour coded for White, Yellow, Orange, Light Green, Red. A String Course will be in the Assembly Field.
