

Dymock Forest – Sunday 28 February 2010

Facilities

Catering

Al fresco at the event – ‘The Butcher’s Grill’

Home-made beef burgers, sausage and dry cured bacon in baps served with fresh salad and relishes

Non-meat options include veggie-burgers, vegetarian chilli and home-made soup

Home-made cakes also available

Fresh coffee, tea and soft drinks.

Local Gurkha Restaurant at The Roadmaker Inn, Gorsley. HR9 7SW serves Sunday lunches. Host: Mr Keshar Sherchan suggests that interested people should ring to make a booking to avoid disappointment. Serving times could be extended for competitors having a late run. Tel: 01989 720 352 or email info@theroadmakerinn.co.uk

Children’s Playground

This is close to the parking area on the Haywood Farm Caravan and Camping Park. The site owner, Mr Stringer, is happy for children to use the playground but we ask parents to supervise their own children there since it will not be staffed.

Nearby attractions

According to the web-site Goodrich Castle is open from 10.00 till 4.00 on Sundays in February. It has been situated near the River Wye since the eleventh century. Adult entry fee: £5.20 Children: £2.60 Concession: £4.40 Family ticket: £13 and English Heritage members free. Telephone to book a guide or for further information 01600 890 538

If you haven’t been already, Symonds Yat is also worth a visit. Gentle walks overlooking the River Wye also offer views of Symonds Rock and local bird life. For those who want to try the Jubilee Maze or Museum of Mazes in Symonds Yat, further details are available from 01600 890 360